

An initiative for Excellency in Sports

Veera at his early glory days

A Well Begun Journey...

WHY THE NAME?

If there could be a politician in Tamilnadu who encourages sports in the state, it is the one and only "Honorable AMMA"!

It was only during the Honorable AMMA's period the SAF Games was conducted for the first time, in Chennai, in 1995. Our "Honorable AMMA" has built the today's Nehru Stadium with world class standards. What's more, each and every contemporary sports personality would have received either a cash reward or a Championship award from the Golden Hands of the Great & Honorable AMMA!

AMMA SPORTS FOUNDATION is dedicated to such a great leader. Our Honorable Amma has not only inspired people for political career but also boosted the aspiration level of millions of youngsters in sports and games.

Golden Moments... through Golden Hands!!

Veera set a new Meet Record

Mr. Veera with Honorable AMMA

Mr. Raja Sekaran receiving the Best Coach Award from the Golden Hands of Honorable AMMA

Moments to cherish in The Universal Sports Foundation

"A human being will mirror how his/her childhood has been".

Echoing this philosophy and etching a space in the Athletics arena has been a quest for Mr. Veera (alias Veera Raghavulu) right from early years of his life. As a Graduate from Madras Christian College, he chased his athletic dream by participating in State & National Championships. He reached the hall of fame when he won Gold Medal and created new Meet Record in Inter-Divisional Athlete Meet Championship in 1994.

Though he became a highly successful first generation businessman, he considers it as a great privilege and honor for the opportunity given to him to perform co-ordination functions of Chartered Flights of "Honorable Amma".

His company 'Universal Aviation' is the No.1 in Aviation Sector for performing aircraft ground handling operations (both domestic & international) for all leading airlines in 28 airports across India. His success as businessman didn't alter his spirit as

